  - s) Global conditions;
  - t) Statutory provisions and guidelines;
  - u) Dividend pay-out ratio of competitors with similar revenue.

B. CIRCUMSTANCES THAT WILL IMPACT DIVIDEND PAY-OUT

A dividend pay-out is a crucial decision as it determines the amount of profit to be distributed among shareholders of the Company versus the amount of profit to be retained in business. The decision must balance the dual objective of appropriately rewarding shareholders and retaining profits in order to maintain a healthy capital adequacy ratio to support future growth. The shareholders of the Company will not be paid a dividend in the following circumstances, subject to discretion of the Board of Directors:

- 1) Proposed expansion plans requiring higher capital allocation;
- 2) Decision to undertake any acquisitions, amalgamation, merger, joint ventures, new product launches, etc. which requires significant capital outflow;
- 3) Requirement of higher working capital for the purpose of business of the Company;
- 4) Proposal for buy-back of securities;
- 5) In the event of losses or inadequate profit.

C. UTILIZATION OF RETAINED EARNINGS

The Board will ask for earnings to be retained based on the available funds and on increasing the value of shareholders' investment in the Company. Decisions on the utilization of the retained earnings of the Company shall be based on the following factors:

- 1) Improving the Company's offerings to help it compete better in the market;
- 2) Expanding the Company's offerings to allow for increased revenue;
- 3) Increasing staff or equipment or ancillary resources to help the Company consolidate and grow its business;
- 4) Modernization plan including upgrading essential technology;
- 5) Replacement of capital assets;
- 6) Where the cost of debt is expensive;
- 7) Dividend payment;
- 8) Such other criteria as the Board may deem fit from time to time.

D. RATE/ QUANTUM OF DIVIDEND

It has always been the Company's endeavor to deliver sustainable value to all its stakeholders, as evident from the past dividend track record of the Company. The Company will strive to distribute an appropriate level of profit to the shareholders in the form of a dividend as determined by the Board and based on the parameters and factors explained in this Policy.

E. MANNER OF DIVIDEND PAYOUT

Final Dividend:

- I. Recommendation, if any, shall be made by the Board, usually in the Board meeting that considers and approves annual financial statements, subject to the approval of the shareholders of the Company.
- II. The dividend, as recommended by the Board, shall be approved/declared at the Annual General Meeting of the Company.
- III. The payment of dividends shall be made within the statutorily prescribed period from the date of declaration to those shareholders who are entitled to receive the dividend on the record date/book closure period, as per applicable law(s).

Interim Dividend:

- I. An Interim Dividend, if any, shall be declared by the Board.

- II. Before declaring an Interim Dividend, the Board shall consider the financial position of the Company.
- III. The payment of dividends shall be made within the statutorily prescribed period from the date of declaration to the shareholders entitled to receive the dividend on the record date, as per the applicable laws.
- IV. In case no Final Dividend is declared, an Interim Dividend paid during the year, if any, will be regarded as the Final Dividend at the Annual General Meeting.

F. PARAMETERS FOR VARIOUS CLASSES OF SHARES

Since the Company has issued only one class of equity shares with equal voting rights, all Members of the Company are entitled to receive the same amount of dividend per share. Parameters for dividend payments in respect of any other class of shares will be as per the respective terms of issue, and in accordance with the applicable regulations if and when the Company decides to issue any other classes of shares.
